It includes interactive elements and lively performers (guides dressed as famous personalities of Croatian past). Step into history through the secrets of the capital city, Zagreb – a city where tradition meets contemporary thought and vision. Take a walk through the many parks that are strung throughout this city, stroll along the streets of the medieval Upper Town and listen to stories of the past, have your photo taken in front of the colourful St. Mark's Church and catch the best view of Zagreb from under the Lotrščak Tower.
